Catholic University Collection The Catholic University of America is the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, located in Washington, D.C. It provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to 6,000 students every year. Next week is the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Every dollar given directly supports financial aid for students from dioceses across the country, including ours. Please be generous.

Sunday Sharing Our monthly food collection to help those in need will take place next weekend, Sept. 11 & 12. The pantry will be collecting the following staples: cereal, peanut butter, rice, pasta and sauce. Please bring your donations of non-perishable food items to Mass next weekend. Monetary donations are also welcome. Thank you for your generous support during the past summer months.

Children's Room Information - For the convenience of parents with small children who may become active during Mass, St. Jude's Cry Room is located to the left of the Sanctuary (the Rectory side of the church). The door leading to the Children's Room is located next to the Tabernacle, then UP the step.

Meetings this week in the Children's Room:
AA meets Monday through Saturday at noon.

Paper Recycling - We have a recycling bin behind the church. Please recycle all paper except cardboard and telephone books. NO plastic bags please.

Check the Bulletin Board at the side entrance for more events and information
